

UNITE! COBB – Churches Serving Their Local Schools

"Through the Eyes of Principals"

What happens when churches serve their local schools? This 2009 video features interviews with Cobb County school principals talking about the impact of churches serving their schools. Presented with the cooperation of Engage Atlanta, sponsor of Community Makeover - an event in which some Unite! Cobb churches participate yearly. Click this link to see video:

"Be-ing the Church"

February, 2011: Instead of having church services on a Sunday morning, several churches in Smyrna (Unite! Cobb Geo-Area 2) joined together to serve and do an extreme "school makeover". See the Fox 5 Atlanta News report: <http://vimeo.com/20274662>. See the interview with principal Charlotte Stowers on the impact of the event on Osborne High School:
